Book Review: Why the Dutch are Different by Ben Coates ...

Why The Dutch Are Different is a striking portrait of The Netherlands in the 21 st century, offering a refreshing and long overdue update of the way the Dutch national character is described by the likes of the great Bill Bryson, foregoing the easy shortcut from clogs and drugs to red-lights. Instead, Coates opts to dig down deeply into the origins of Dutch liberal attitudes, their ingrained notions of what is right and good in the world, and the day-to-day Dutchness that happens as the two ...
